The ARP impact factor conundrum

How is impact factor calculated?

In any given year, the impact factor of a journal is the average number of citations received per paper, published in that journal, during the two preceding years.

$$\text{2014 impact factor} = A/B$$

A = 2014 cites of articles published in 2012 and 2013.

B = the total number of "citable items" published in 2012 and 2013.

Quantifying citations has become the post-publication counterpart to pre-publication peer review.

Acta Reumatológica Portuguesa

*(...) quando uma figura
Se nos mostra no ar, robusta e válida,
De disforme e grandíssima estatura;
O rosto carregado, a barba esquálida,
Os olhos encovados, e a postura
Medonha e má e a cor terrena e pálida;
Cheios de terra e crespos os cabelos,
A boca negra, os dentes amarelos.
Tão grande era de membros, que bem posso
Certificar-te que este era o segundo
De Rodes estranhíssimo Colosso,
Que um dos sete milagres foi do mundo.
Cum tom de voz nos fala, horrendo e grosso,
Que pareceu sair do mar profundo.
Arrepiam-se as carnes e o cabelo,
A mi e a todos, só de ouvi-lo e vê-lo! (...)*

CITATIONS

He believed in Dictatorship. He did exactly as Dictators do, they swoop in on a country when they are weak. In Hitler's case it was when Germany was struggling with the Great Depression, they would lean to anyone that would save them, that gives Dictators the power to take complete control of the country and then likely ruin it, as Hitler would very commonly be cited as the perfect because of the Great Depression and countries were weak.
